

Amusement Ride Owners – What You Need to Know

As Hurricane Matthew approaches, please remember that the manufacturer of an amusement ride or device will have recommendations regarding the safe operation of amusement devices in certain environmental conditions, including strong winds and rain. South Carolina law requires that amusement owners operate amusement devices safely.

Use caution and remember:

- Secure rides against possible winds.
- Do not operate in high winds/rain/temperature fluctuation/severe weather.