1. Beginning January 1, 2006, any new boiler installed and operated in this state, unless otherwise exempted as described in section E in this document, must be designed and constructed in accordance with the ASME Code or a nationally recognized code of construction (International Mechanical Code). Any new boiler installed in this state must be marked in accordance with the code of construction and must be registered with the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors (614-888-0750).

B. Inspections

1. Beginning January 1, 2006, each boiler in current use in this state that is not exempt from registration and regular inspections (see section E below) must be thoroughly inspected as to their installation and condition. Owners and operators of all boilers must have a special inspector file with the department evidence of timely inspection as provided in Title 41, Chapter 14, of the of the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended. The department will accept boiler inspections from special inspectors on line beginning June 1, 2006, utilizing the Praeses (Jurisdiction Online) Data Base System for boiler inspections. Owners should contact their insurance provider or an independent special inspector to conduct the inspection. The special inspector will make all arrangements for the initial registration and inspection and for subsequent inspections. The special inspector will submit the inspection report to the department. An invoice for the boiler registration fee or subsequent inspection fee will be sent to the owner by the department.

2. Annually, an inspection must be conducted on power boilers and high pressure, high temperature water boilers and this inspection must be an internal inspection; however, if it is not possible to perform an internal inspection, the inspection must be as complete an inspection as possible. The boiler must also be externally inspected while under pressure, if possible.

3. Biennially an inspection must be conducted on low-pressure steam or vapor heating boilers and an internal inspection must be conducted every four years where installation permits.

4. Biennially an inspection must be conducted on hot water heating or hot water supply boilers and an internal inspection must be conducted at the discretion of the inspector.

5. Special inspectors should submit initial and subsequent inspection reports on-line using the department's boiler web site for inspections, <https://scboiler.llronline.com> or by electronic interface (done by insurance companies or PRAESES data base). The boiler owner must have a special inspector submit an initial registration/inspection report to the Boiler Safety Program by May 31, 2007. Boiler inspection reports performed by special inspectors on or after April 2, 2006, may be submitted to the department on line beginning June 1, 2006, provided the inspector has attached a department boiler registration tag number to the boiler. All initial boiler registration/inspection reports must be submitted to the department within 90 days of the inspection. A grace period of two months beyond the last annual or biennial inspection may lapse between certificate inspections.

C. Special Inspectors and Inspection Costs:

1. Applicants for credentials as South Carolina special inspectors to perform boiler inspections must complete department Document 205, Boiler Inspector Certification Application. The document is on the department's web site under the Boiler Safety Program. Each special inspector must be currently commissioned with National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors or have been tested from another state for boiler inspections with a current commission from that state. Upon submission of a valid application, the department will issue a certification as a special inspector to inspect regulated boilers within the State of South Carolina. Upon receipt of the state boiler inspector certificate, the special inspector will be given a user ID and a password to register boilers on line utilizing the department's web site.

2. The initial registration and subsequent inspection fees are $25.00 for each regulated boiler. Checks or money orders shall be made payable to the Boiler Safety Program.
