

Local Anesthesia Course

at

Midlands Technical College

Registration is now open.

The course will be held: 10/19/2018-11/09/2018
Friday 08:30AM - 05:00PM,
Academic Center, Room 350

Course Name: CEDEN-520

Course Title: Infiltration Anesthesia for Dental Hygiene Procedures

Course Description:

This participatory clinical course is designed to meet the requirements necessary to sit for the SC Board of Dentistry Exam for infiltration anesthesia. (Dental hygienists licensed in SC may take the course and only those with SC license may take the board exam). Fee includes all materials and equipment, but does NOT include fee for board of dentistry exam. Students must have computer access for online component. On the first day of class, MUST present copies of current CPR and a Hepatitis B TITER. Students without documentation will not be allowed in the course. All students will administer and receive local anesthetic injections. Pregnant students may not participate in this course. Students must submit all online assignments and pass an online pretest with 77% or > prior to first day of class. Students must pass an in class final with 80% or > to pass the course.

Go to this website below for more information.

<https://mtconline.midlandstech.edu/CeClassCatalog/cecatalogsearch?CourseName=CEDEN-520>

OR

Contact Customer Service at (803)732-0432

OR

cce@midlandstech.edu for registration information.

If you have questions about the actual course itself, please contact Amanda Hogan, the instructor, at hogana@midlandstech.edu.