Legislative Committee
Mr. McLeod stated that Mr. Buckshorn, Mr. Hyatt, Ms. Dukes and himself met to review the statutory provisions regarding the Board. The proposed changes are in the board notebook. The question was asked, what is the next step in the process? Ms. Bundrick said that the full Board will need to review the changes and determine if they would like to proceed with the changes. Ms. Coleman stated that it would be prudent for the Board to go ahead and file legislation because of the interest in regulatory review pursuant to Governor Haley’s Executive Order and establishment of the Regulatory Review Task Force.

Discussion ensued about the statute and regulation changes. In order to make statute changes a sponsor will need to be secured. The sponsor will introduce the statute as a bill to go through the legislative process. The Agency would send a notice of drafting for the regulations. If there is any opposition, then the matter is referred to the Administrative Law Judge.
