Privacy Disclosure:

South Carolina Law requires that every individual who applies for an occupational or professional license provide a social security number for use in the establishment, enforcement and collection of child support obligations and for reporting to certain databanks established by law. Failure to provide your social security number for these mandatory purposes will result in the denial of your licensure application. Social security numbers may also be disclosed to other governmental regulatory agencies and for identification purposes to testing providers and organizations involved in professional regulation. Your social security number will not be released for any other purpose not provided for by law.

Other personal information collected by the Department for the licensing boards it administers is limited to such personal information as is necessary to fulfill a legitimate public purpose. The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ensures that the public has a right to access appropriate records and information possessed by a government agency. Therefore, some personal information on the application may be subject to public scrutiny or release. The Department collects and disseminates personal information in compliance with The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, the South Carolina Family Privacy Protection Act, and other applicable privacy laws and regulations. Additionally, the Department shares certain information on the application with other governmental agencies for various governmental purposes, including research and statistical services.

Important Notice

You may be a vacation time sharing salesperson without this registration and without paying this fee if you are employed by the time share developer/seller as an employee or by placing a valid general real estate license with the broker-in-charge of developer/seller. If the project requires this registration, then you are responsible for keeping the Commission informed in writing as to your current home address, phone numbers and current time share project affiliation.

Time Share Resale brokerages not affiliated with the registered developer/seller must have a valid general real estate license under a broker-in-charge.
