- Submission of a completed Statement of Practice Affidavit.
- Submission of Continuing Education documentation for the last licensed renewal period. See Continuing Education Guidelines for license specific requirements, <https://www.llr.sc.gov/lthc/ce.aspx>. If continuing education cannot be attained, a written statement attesting to this must be submitted and an appearance before the Board or re-examination may be required. Reinstatement of an inactive license does not require continuing education documentation.

If the license has been lapsed for more than one (1) year, a person is qualified to reinstate a license if the following requirements are met:

- Submission of a completed initial application and payment of application fee.
- Submission of a completed Statement of Practice Affidavit.
- Submission of Continuing Education documentation for the last licensed renewal period and each year of lapsed licensure. See Continuing Education Guidelines for license specific requirements, <https://www.llr.sc.gov/lthc/ce.aspx>. If continuing education cannot be attained, a written statement attesting to this must be submitted and an appearance before the Board or re-examination may be required. Reinstatement of an inactive license does not require continuing education documentation.

Application Process

Your application is good for one (1) year from the date of receipt. If all required information is not received within this one (1) year period; you must begin the application process from the beginning.
